

THE EASTERN HEMISPHERE.

This historical map of the Eastern Hemisphere, titled "THE EASTERN HEMISPHERE," is a detailed representation of the world's eastern half. It features a grid of latitude and longitude lines, with the Equator and Tropic of Cancer clearly marked. The map includes the following geographical features and place names:

- Continents and Major Regions: Europe, Africa, Asia, and Australia (labeled as "WESTERN AUSTRALIA" and "SOUTH AUSTRALIA").
- Oceans and Seas: Indian Ocean, Pacific Ocean, Atlantic Ocean, Arctic Ocean, and the Red Sea.
- Key Cities and Towns: London, Paris, Rome, Constantinople, Calcutta, Bombay, Singapore, and many others.
- Geographical Features: The Sahara Desert, the Nile River, the Ganges River, the Himalayas, and the Great Barrier Reef.
- Islands and Archipelagos: The British Isles, the Azores, the Cape Verde Islands, the East Indies, and the New Hebrides.

The map is oriented with North at the top, and the title "THE EASTERN HEMISPHERE." is prominently displayed at the top center. The map is a valuable historical document, providing a detailed view of the world's eastern half as it was known in the 19th century.
